Re: Pizza the Pie, LLC, and Becca Boo Pies, LLC, a Single Employer
Case 10-CA-179060

EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE EXCEPTIONS AND BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF EXCEPTIONS

The request for an extension of time in the above-referenced case is granted.¹ The due date for the receipt in Washington, D.C. of Exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision and Brief in Support of Exceptions is extended to September 5, 2018. Although this office previously indicated that “[n]o further extensions will be granted, we grant this extension based solely on the representation that the parties are engaged in settlement discussions and that the request for the extension is unopposed. This extension of time to file exceptions and brief in support of exceptions applies to all parties.

¹ Please note that NLRB Rules and Regulations Section 102.2(c) states that “[r]equests for extensions of time filed within three days of the due date must be grounded upon circumstances not reasonably foreseeable in advance.” The due date for exceptions was August 8, 2018 and the request for an extension of time was filed on August 7, 2018, which is only one business day prior to the document’s due date. Despite being filed within three days of the due date, there is no explanation in the request for extension of time as to why the need for the extension was “not reasonably foreseeable in advance.” However, given that Region and Charging Party do not oppose the extension, and that the additional time is requested to engage in settlement discussions, we will allow the extension.
